Subject: Oil Cooler coverage under Overhaul Protection for Truck Engines (OPT)
Effective with the January 1, 2019 OPT contract, the entire oil cooler assembly is now covered if replaced and marked as replaced on the overhaul worksheet during the overhaul.

What is different about the enrollment process:

- The new OPT contract (LEET0047-08) with an effective date of January 1, 2019 available on the ESC website and through Quote Plus <https://dealer.cat.com/en/ps/esc-epp/esc/truck/overhaul-protection.html>

- Effective 2019 Registration Contract \(excludes Colombia and Venezuela\)
- When the oil cooler is replaced during the overhaul, the complete oil cooler assembly, gaskets and seals are covered
- If the oil cooler is inspected and reused, the housing is no longer covered

What is the same about the enrollment process:

- The OPT inspection worksheet (LEHT0117-06) has not changed
- Under inspected components, the entire oil cooler is referenced as the oil cooler housing
- Example from the OPT inspection worksheet:

INSPECTED COMPONENTS

	INSPECTED	Replaced	Exception
Oil Cooler Housing	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- The 2018 contract must continue to be used for overhauls to qualify for 2018 pricing available through 31 January 2019
